ABOUT UOG

- Established in 1952
- U.S. Accredited
- 90% Asian and Pacific Islanders
- 34 bachelor degrees, 15 masters
- Popular programs:
  - Business
  - Accounting
  - Criminal Justice
  - Nursing
  - Education
  - Biology
  - English
ABOUT UOG

- Research programs:
  - Tropical Agriculture
  - Invasive Species
  - Aquaculture
  - Marine Biology
  - Coral Reef Preservation
  - Water Quality
  - U.S. Business & Economics
  - Cancer Research….more
RESEARCH PROGRAMS

MARINE LABORATORY

WPTRC
RESEARCH PROGRAMS

TRITON FARM

FADIAN HATCHERY
12,000 square meters, best location in Western Pacific

Isolated, bio-secure since 2003

Peneaus Vannamei breeding lines

Clear, fresh water 28.5C

2 saltwater wells 28C

Concrete ponds, backup generator

Access to international airport
Goals:
- Applied aquaculture research
- Healthy fish fry
- Pathogen-free shrimp: post-larvae and broodstock
- Market products in the region
- Seek public-private partnership for investment and marketing

Dr. John Brown
jbrown@uguam.uog.edu
ARCHAEOLOGY

- UOG Micronesian Area Research Center Archaeology Lab

- Research: Neolithic maritime migration and rice terrace agriculture in the Ifugao Highlands of the Philippines

- Locations: Island Southeast Asia and Western Pacific

- Archaeologists from UOG and from Southeast Asia through the Henry A. Luce Foundation program

- Vietnamese faculty collaboration welcome

- Dr. John Peterson

  jpeterson@uguam.uog.edu
Professional & International Programs

- English Language Institute
- Short-term, intensive English programs within an American higher education framework
- International students admissions:
  - Complete coursework in the UOG English Language Institute
  - OR Pass the TOEFL English Language Test 500+
  - Apply as a regular student
- Cathleen Moore-Linn
  cmoore@uguam.uog.edu
UOG Information Technology / Computer Center

- Cutting edge technologies in:
  - Telecommunications
  - Networking
  - Wi-Fi & mobile
  - Online Learning
  - DBMS and Data warehouse
  - Web Services & Cloud

- UOG can be a gateway link to Hawaii and North America’s e-Education & Research Network

- Dr. Luan Nguyen
  nguyen@uguam.uog.edu
Four Reasons Why Vietnamese Students should come to the University of Guam:

Offers U.S. accredited degree programs and courses.

Diverse, multicultural campus where you will not feel like a foreigner and will be embraced as a friend.
Four Reasons Why Vietnamese Students should come to the University of Guam:

- Warm, tropical environment similar to Vietnam. Guam is less than 4,000km east of Vietnam.
- Gateway to mainland U.S. institutions through National Student Exchange and other programs.