The 21st Annual AmCham Governors' Ball was organized successfully last Sat, Dec 10 at the InterContinental Asiana Saigon Hotel. We welcomed almost 420 participants. We have had many favorable comments about the dinner, the decorations, and the entertainment, and many guests stayed until the very end! Thank you very much again to our Ball Sponsors who contributed cash, products, and services to help add to the success of the evening. Through your support, the Governors' Ball raised over US $45,000 in net proceeds, all of which will go to support AmCham Scholarship Program.

Organized on the morning following the Governors' Ball, the 4th Annual AmCham Breakfast with Santa again attracted more than 360 participants, in which 220 children were happy to meet Santa, spend time at Kid Corners, dance with elves on the stage, and enjoy a scrumptious breakfast at the 5-star Intercontinental Asiana Hotel.

This is a pure charity event, and a portion of every adult ticket sold for this special holiday family occasion helped fund the cost of a child from the Binh Loi Association to attend the Breakfast.

FedEx CEO suggests revised TPP, with improvements

in a speech in Washington on Dec 9. There are two important takeaways from the speech. (1) it shows that the corporate establishment is going to take a hardline on issues like NAFTA. Smith made a vigorous defense of the TPP agreement. (2) Republican members of the House voted 190 to 50 in June 2016 to give the President "Trade Promotion Authority" for TPP, which shows that free trade deals are popular with Republicans. With Democrats out of power in Washington, and Trump's administration increasingly staffed by establishment figures, the President-elect could have a lonely fight on his hands if he attempts to dismantle the free-trade status quo.

World Bank: Structural reforms remain critical to Vietnam's growth

Thanks to robust domestic demand and export-oriented manufacturing, Vietnam's medium-term outlook remains favorable, with GDP expected to expand by 6% this year. Vietnam's growth was accompanied by low inflation and widening current account surplus. Risks that could adversely affect medium term prospects include perennial delays in implementation of structural and fiscal reforms.

TET Lunar New Year, 2017 . Jan 26 - Feb 1 - Seven Days

Traditionally, there are several main days of celebration: Tết Lunar New Year's Eve (Jan 27), and The First (Jan 28), Second (Jan 29), and Third (Jan 30), Fourth (Jan 31), and Fifth (Feb 1) of Tết Nguyên Đán. Vietnamese traditionally celebrate Tết from the fifteenth day of the twelfth lunar month to the fifteenth day of the first lunar month. And, even today, business slows two weeks before and two weeks after TET. The official 2017 TET Holidays in Vietnam are from Thu, Jan 26 to Wed, Feb 1 inclusive.

News and Issues

TPP is not dead: Sen. Orrin Hatch, Rep. Kevin Brady, Rep. Dave Reichert

President-elect Trump said he would withdraw from TPP on his first day in office. Japan's PM Abe said the TPP would be meaningless without U.S. participation. House Ways & Means Chairman Kevin Brady, Trade Subcommittee Chairman Dave Reichert, and Senate Finance Committee Chairman Orrin Hatch say TPP is still possible. Asked how he plans to persuade Trump to reconsider his stance on the Asia-Pacific deal, Hatch said, "well, I'm fairly persuasive sometimes."

Vietnam's 2017 Minimum Wage Decree

 Vietnam's Minimum Wage for 2017, 2015-2017 (Annual), 2016 - 2017 (Final). The chart shows minimum wages in VND (Vietnam Dong) for different industries and regions. The y-axis lists industries: Agriculture, Forestry, and Fishery; Manufacturing; Construction; Trade, Hotels, and Restaurants; Transportation, Storage, and Postal Services; and Others. The x-axis shows years: 2015, 2016, and 2017. The chart indicates a significant increase in wages, particularly in 2017.

Vietnam's Minimum Wage Adjustment for 2017, the fourth since the establishment of the National Wage Council under the revised Labour Code of 2012, is an average increase of 7.3%, down from 12.5% in 2016. It was announced in Decree 153/2016/NĐ-CP, 14/11/2016, and will go into effect on Jan 1, 2017. One difficulty: enterprises' expenditures will increase sharply, because they not only must adjust monthly salary for their workers but also must increase their contribution to social insurance. At the present, total social insurance takes up 32% of monthly salary, of which employers must pay 22%.

ILA Vietnam - education training centers

HPEF Capital, formerly Headland Capital Partners, and other shareholders of Vietnam-based education company ILA Vietnam are seeking to sell the business for $150 million. First-round bids will be made by the end of this year, according to a Bloomberg report.

After the Trans-Pacific Partnership, a perspective from Vietnam

President Obama has announced that he will no longer seek passage of the Trans-Pacific Partnership (TPP) in Congress, leaving the fate of the treaty in the hands of President-elect Trump and the Congressional Republican leadership.

This matters for two reasons. First, within a decade, four of the five largest economies of the world will border the Pacific Ocean. The United States will be able to continue its global leadership role only if it retains an integral, active presence in the Pacific. Second, if the United States retreats from the region, as a defeat of TPP in Congress would surely signal, an emboldened China will ever more aggressively seek to displace America.

TAL: Back to the future through Vietnam

TAL Apparel's $50 million plant in Vietnam opened in October, can produce 16,000,000 shirts annually, in 100,000 variations, when output ramps up in the future, part of Vietnam's bid to join apparel global supply chains and employ millions. But the biggest news is across the road, where construction is under way on a $320 million TAL textile mill, part of an integrated operation from yarn dyeing to fabric weaving to finishing

Korea's Kolon Industries to invest $1 billion in Binh Duong, Vietnam

To develop a factory manufacturing airbags and industrial fabric for automobile tires, aiming to capture a larger share of the domestic and international market. Kolon Industries will rent a 42-hectare area in Becamex IDC's expanded Bau Bang Industrial Park to construct the factory. The long-term investment plan has three phases. The first phase, with a total investment capital of $220 million, will be disbursed in the 2017-2018 period, the second phase will last until 2026 with $600 million. The $1 billion mark will be hit sometime after 2026.

Vietnam to apply extensive area code changes in 2017

Area code changes in Ho Chi Minh City, Hanoi, Dong Nai, Binh Duong, and a number of other provinces will take place on June 17, 2017. The new area codes will be applied for 59 cities and provinces in three phases, from February 11 to June 17, with steps taken to ensure the change will not confuse the public, the Ministry of Information and Communications announced. But there are other concerns, such as the need to reprint packaging or business cards once numbers are changed, costing quite a sum.

Prime Minister approves National Committee on Trade Facilitation

On Oct 4, 2016. The NCTF, based on the WTO Trade Facilitation Agreement Art. 23.2, will facilitate both domestic coordination and implementation of the provisions of the TFA. The establishment of the NCTF, conclusion of a Customs Mutual Assistance Agreement between Vietnam and U.S. customs authorities, and establishment of meaningful public-private consultations regarding import/export procedures in Vietnam have been the top priorities of the Vietnam Trade Facilitation Alliance, a partnership between USAID, VCCI, and AmCham.

Prime Minister approves Trade Facilitation Agreement Implementation

Plan on Oct 13, under the leadership of Deputy Prime Minister Vương Đình Huệ. With the WTO TFA expected to enter into effect soon, the plan includes Working Groups for TFA commitments, including transparency, fees and procedures, freedom of transit, customs cooperation and mutual assistance, special and differential treatment, institutional arrangements, etc. When implemented, the Trade Facilitation Agreement will reduce Vietnam's trade costs by 20%, according to a WTO report.
