Jun 12 World Blood Donor Days 2017

World Blood Donor Day was first initiated and established to be celebrated annually on 14th of June by "the World Health Organization, the International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies" in the year 2004. About 108 million blood donations are collected globally every year. Nearly 50% of these blood donations are collected in high-income countries, home to less than 20% of the world's population. The average blood donation rate is more than 9 times greater in high-income countries than in low-income countries.

The AmCham CSR Group is working with the Red Cross and Hospital of Hematology and Blood Transfusion to organize an AmCham World Blood Donor Day from June 12 to June 22 at locations provided. For further information and blood donation registration, please contact Amy Nguyen at 3824 3562 or amy.nguyen@amchamvietnam.com

"I'm here," USTR Lighthizer to APEC Trade Ministers' Meeting

His message to trade ministers seeking a sense of the U.S. world view will probably sound like, "I'm new to the job, but be assured the U.S. has not turned its back on trade," WTO Director General Roberto Azevêdh praised Lighthizer's experience and knowledge of the multilateral system, but admitted the USTR has a hard, unenviable job ahead of him. "It's going to be tough to see how he can connect all the dots between what the president says, what the private sector has been saying, what the agricultural sector has been saying, what Congress has been saying, the different parties. It's a lot of moving parts."

Three Vietnamese teams get Facebook sponsor package

The three best teams won sponsor packages from Facebook (FbStart) worth $80,000 each at the TOPICA AI Edtech Asia Hackathon 2017, the largest artificial intelligence contest in Southeast Asia.

Co-processing, solution for industrial waste

With its rapid industrialisation and population growth, Việt Nam produces more than 15 million tonnes of waste a year, including 4.7 million tonnes of solid industrial waste, according to the Ministry of Natural Resources and Environment. The waste is mainly treated by landfilling or burning in industrial incinerators.

In a letter to Congress, Ambassador Lighthizer expresses the Trump Administration's commitment to concluding the negotiations with timely and substantive results for U.S. consumers, businesses, farmers, ranchers, and workers. These goals will be pursued consistent with U.S. priorities and the negotiating objectives established by Congress in the Bipartisan Congressional Trade Priorities and Accountability Act of 2015 (TPA). Negotiations will begin no earlier than August 16, 2017.

AmCham Statement at Meeting with Prime Minister Nguyen Xuan Phuc made by AmCham Chairman, Jonathan Moreno on May 17.

"The American business community is proud of our contributions to the development of Vietnam's economy. Trade between our two countries passed $52 billion last year, up 16 percent year-over-year. We are confident that the upward growth trend of trade and investment relations between the US and Vietnam will continue, and can strengthen.

A new US President took office recently, and while we regret that the Trans Pacific Partnership Agreement has stalled, AmCham believes there are new paths forward to increase trade and investment between the US and Vietnam."

Walmart Reports 63% Rise in Online Sales

Walmart has always excelled at selling products in its cavernous stores. It appears to be getting its head around selling online, too.

On Thursday, the company said e-commerce sales had grown 63 percent in the United States in the latest quarter. The unexpected leap offered the strongest evidence yet that Walmart, the country's largest retailer, is making headway in its effort to be as prominent online as it is across the American landscape.

Government to focus on reducing costs of doing business

At the dialogue between the government and private sector companies, representatives of government agencies have answered complaints and made promises of the things they are going to do in the near future to support the development of the private sector. Immediately after the conference, Prime Minister Nguyen Xuan Phuc signed Directive 20 on adjusting the practice of inspecting and examining companies. Below are quotes from the PM and government agencies.

Lighthizer to hold talks with Congress on NAFTA, visit Vietnam for APEC talks

Robert Lighthizer will meet with congressional committees to discuss the administration's negotiating objectives for NAFTA and travel to Vietnam for the two-day APEC trade ministers meeting. One of Lighthizer's first orders of business will be to consult Congress on the administration's plans to renegotiate Nafta, which Trump called a "disaster" during the election campaign. His confirmation clears a hurdle before the U.S. can start 90 days of consultations preceding Nafta talks. Trump has threatened to withdraw from the agreement with Mexico and Canada if he doesn't think discussions are going his way.
