2019 regional minimum wages

In preparation for 2019 regional minimum wages negotiations at the National Wages Council (NWC), the Bureau of Employer Activities of VCCI will have a meeting with the NWC's Technical Team in the mid-April 2018 to discuss relevant issues. The adjustment of regional minimum wages is particularly important this year due to the increase of social security rates.

VCCI has asked for VBF's support to prepare a small report on evaluating the impacts of last year's minimum wages policy as well as some current labor regulations/other policies that lead to increasing expenses of the businesses. They asked AmCham members to help contribute comments/inputs on this topic. Your contribution will be consolidated and finalised with the report at the VBF Human Resources WG's meeting on 2nd April 2018. Due to the time constraint, please kindly send them (info@vbf.org.vn) before COB Tuesday, 27th March, 2018 for their further action.
