

FUTURE SERIES EDUCATION:

PREPARE YOUR CHILDREN FOR CAREERS THAT DON'T EXIST YET

Speakers

Adrian Watts
Head of School
International School Ho Chi Minh City (ISHCMC)

Mr Watts has worked as an administrator in International schools around the world in Mexico, Kenya, USA, Spain, Thailand and most recently Vietnam. He to Ho Chi Minh City, in July 2013 and held a position of Deputy Head and Academic Director at International School Ho Chi Minh City. Following the creation of a very carefully crafted new school mission and vision Adrian was promoted to Head of School. He was directly involved in the designing of the new ISHCMC Secondary campus and worked with architects and builders to ensure that the concept of the school were fully understood.

Before coming to Vietnam, Mr Watts spent 13 years in Thailand. He was a Secondary School Principal at New International School of Thailand for 7 years from 2000 to 2007. At this time, he successfully introduced the IBMYP to the school which raised NIST's profile to being one of the leading MYP schools worldwide. He was then promoted to Deputy Head and Academic Director a position in which he encouraged increasing average IB Diploma scores and academic standards across the school.

Mr Watts went to school at Cheltenham Grammar School, holds a BA Joint Honours, in Economic History and Sociology from University of Durham, did hos Post Graduate Certificate of Education at Loughborough university in 1981 and then began his education career in England at Read School and then three years at Kelly College in Devon.