

Biography – Doan Ngoc Khanh Chi

Doan Ngoc Khanh Chi
Senior Vice President

Country Human Resources Officer cum ICG HR Generalist and Talent & Development Head

Based in Hochiminh City and starting with Citi from September 2008, Doan Ngoc Khanh Chi has been appointed as Country Human Resources Officer (CHRO) for Citibank in Vietnam since May 2013. The Country HR Officer is a senior member of the country management team who is responsible for setting the country HR agenda and strategies in line with business.

Before taking over the current role, Chi spent 5 years at Citi as Human Resources Generalist.

Prior to that, Chi was Human Resources Relationship Manager for HSBC Vietnam from September 2007 to September 2008.

Chi has held several positions in Executive Search and Selection (ESS) Department at Navigos Group Vietnam from September 2005 to September 2007 with last position as ESS Manager.

Chi started her career in Ernst & Young Vietnam in Human Resources Advisory Services Department and have worked for EY for 2 years from September 2003 to September 2005.

Chi graduated from the Van Lang University, Ho Chi Minh city with a Bachelor of Arts degree, majoring in English and was the Top Graduate of Foreign Languages Faculty.