2014 Kweichow Moutai

Kweichow Moutai (or Guizhou Maotai) has a rich history of over 2000 years, produced in the picturesque small town of Maotai in southwestern China. This distilled spirit, made from organic rice and sorghum, is produced in a special terroir. It is considered one of the world's top 3 distilled liquors, together with Cognac from France, and Whisky from the Scottish Highlands.

In China, it has become the ultimate luxury gift for elite individuals and celebrations. It was famously used to welcome Richard Nixon on his historic trip to China in 1972, and again when Chinese President Xi Jinping met with then-President Barack Obama in 2013.

The spirit continues to age and improve in the bottle. Limited editions are collected and showcased by international auction houses, with certain bottles sold for more than $40,000 each.

The company itself is China's 2nd most valuable firm in terms of market capitalization, only second to Tencent, and valued more than Alibaba.

Celebrate a special evening or individual or invest in your future with this rare bottle of 2014 Kweichow Moutai.
